

We are the leading provider of Recruitment, Training and Consultancy services to the Recovery Industry

Our Aim

We aim to provide our customers with a range of professional, efficient and cost-effective services to assist in the smooth running of their recovery business, including: Recruitment, Training and Business Consultancy.

About Us

Based in Essex, with nationwide coverage; we offer tailored services to all types of organisations within the industry, from the small, workshop and garage based independents to the large, corporate market leaders and work-providers.

Our experience, knowledge and expertise within the industry has led to endorsements and recommendations from many of the key-industry players with whom we work closely. We strive to build strong working partnerships with all stakeholders to ensure that we keep up-to-date with ongoing matters around staff shortages, training needs, compliance, auditing and risk assessment.

About F1 Personnel Ltd

F1 Personnel Ltd is the only agency in the UK that offers Recruitment, Training and Consultancy solutions focused solely on the Breakdown & Recovery Industry.

Established in 2001 and with over 30 years combined knowledge and expertise we work closely with all industry stakeholders including the: key-players, associations, work providers, motoring organisations, operators and automotive businesses; large and small.

With an in-depth knowledge of the industry's needs and complexities, we are well-versed on the immense changes over recent years and the impact that these have had on how recovery businesses now recruit, train and manage their staff and operations.

Our Services

Recruitment

We Recruit

We recruit for all areas of a Breakdown & Recovery business and strive to introduce fresh talent to the industry wherever possible.

We source and select the best candidates from the applications we receive and only submit the people we believe meet the criteria set and have the right attributes for the job. Once submitted our customers just need to tell us who they would like to interview and we make the necessary arrangements.

Whether you are looking to fill a permanent vacancy or increase your staffing levels to cover a short-term uplift in business, F1 Recruitment has terms that would apply to you.

Our pricing structure is designed with the industry in mind and appreciates the tight margins recovery businesses work on. We value long-term working partnerships and offer bespoke pricing plans to reflect this along with attractive rates for volume orders.

Furthermore, we only charge once we have made a placement so there are no upfront costs or registration fees to our customers. The service is efficient, cost-effective and hassle-free.

Training

We Train

We recognise the value of well-trained staff and the skills they have for the industry and to ensure the highest quality of mind our training team has designed a range of courses and core modules designed to ensure the highest professionalism and competence.

Courses are relaxed but informative and available for a range of categories and job roles, including programmes designed alongside our working partners Apex Network Systems Ltd and their approved training provider offering advanced training courses on the

- Familiarisation Training: a course designed to ensure all Apex Recovery Management staff are up to date in charge for all F1 new starters and to ensure they are up to date with RMS on a daily basis.
- Advanced Training: modules designed to ensure a deep understanding and knowledge of the industry and its capabilities.

The Team

Our commitment to excellence is reflected in the experience and professional accreditations of our team of specialist consultants:

F1 Recruitment is the division of the agency dedicated to recruiting for the industry. Headed up by our Founder, Jane Cattaneo, her REC-trained (Recruitment and Employment Confederation) consultants have been placing candidates and building long-term partnerships since 2001. Their knowledge of the industry ensures that they source the best candidates and only select those that demonstrate the qualities needed to thrive in this harsh but rewarding industry.

The aim of F1 Consultancy, the division of the agency dedicated to offering professional analysis and objective, independent advice, is to help businesses consolidate their operations, assess company-wide strengths and weaknesses and plan strategies to restructure, streamline and move forward.

Working alongside F1 Training, Mark Madgwick and his team of independent consultants, have a long-term working knowledge of the industry, coupled with qualifications and accreditations in all aspects of legislation, training and business management, giving them a unique insight and perspective...the ability to see the bigger picture whilst understanding the smaller detail!
